Strange my burdens brighter
Strange my pathways lighter
Every since the Lord came and took control
I feel brand new and so will you
If you let the Lord come into your life

The mountains not so high
And the valley's not so low
The road is not so rough
And the going's not so tough

Every since the lord, He saved my soul
I'm so glad that he gave me joy.

Joy in place of sorrow
Hope, hope for tomorrow
Every since the Lord came into my life
I feel brand new and so will you
If you let the Lord come into your life
If you let the Lord come into your life
