WHY DO I FEEL Lyrics by Paul Dunnett 2003

Why do I feel the way I feel when I'm around you Can't sleep, can't think, can't breathe the same without you

(Cuz I really) I wanna tell you the way I feel inside Theses bottled emotions are getting to hard to hide
What can I say to justify this ordeal My head and body's spinning and I don't know what's real (please tell meâ€¦.what is real)

It feels so right, I know it's wrong, I have this feeling we belong
I know you'll never feel the same. I'm angered at you but you're not the one to blame (not to blame)

I wish that I could let it be (wish that I could let it be) Feelings I had for you are making me angry And now it feels worse than before (oh much worse than before)
Nothing I do can seem right for you at all

It feels so rightâ€¦I know it's wrongâ€¦ I have this feeling we belong
I know you'll neverâ€¦ feel the sameâ€¦ I'm pissed at
you
But you're not the one toâ€¦ blame {yeah-eh hey yeah x4 }

And I think now I can see, I wish that I could set you free,
And now I'm bouncing off the walls because I set myself up for another fall (another fallâ€¦another fall)
