I STILL BELONG TO YOU

(Jerry Foster - Bill Rice)

Â« Â© '70 Jack & Bill Music Â»

I thought of leaving you a note but every time I start There's knowing blue enough to write this feeling in my heart
Sometimes I packed to run away but where would I run to My heart would keep reminding me I still belong to you Many times I've had the urge to pack my things and leave
But this feeling comes and goes so I'll never do If I love you enough to stand the things you've put me through
No matter what you'd do to me I still belong to you I'm hurt inside but what's his pride it won't keep me warm at night
It has no arms to take me in and hold me like you do What a little bit of love you give is all I'm clinging to
It takes your love to make me live I still belong to you
