You turned down the love that I tried to give you tore out my heart and my will to live
I won't deny I still feel the same if I had it all to do over I'd do it all over again
I'm a fool to feel you the way I do cause only a fool would keep on loving you So I'll take the hurt and I'll take the pain
If I had it all to do over I'd do it all over again [steel]
I can't erase these memories of you I can't forget the sweet kiss that I knew Oh where is my pride where is my shame
If I had it all to do over I'd do it all over again
If I had it all to do over I'd do it all over again
