Well, once they had a dance, they called the bunny hop
Now the cats are in a trance, all they wanna do is bop

So bop, oh, honey bop, well bop, a honey bop
Oh bop, honey bop, well, don't stop, a honey bop

When the band begins to rock and it's rockin' to your blues
If you think you blow your top, well, put on your rockin'
shoes

'Cause I can bop, honey bop, well bop, a honey bop
Let's bop, honey bop, don't stop, a honey bop

When the night is up and gone, but you still wanna go Though you see the light of dawn, baby, tell the band to blow

And bop, honey bop, well bop, a honey bop
Oh, well bop, honey bop, don't stop, a honey bop

Well, the waltz is for a square and the rumba is too old Baby, we're just rockin', let it satisfy your soul

So bop, well, honey bop, well bop, a honey bop
Oh bop, honey bop, don't stop, a honey bop

Well, now you've heard the dance, they call the bunny hop
But the cats are in a trance, all they wanna do is bop

So bop, well, honey bop, well bop, a honey bop
Well bop, honey bop, don't stop, a-bop-bop-bop
