Walking past the doors of memory
we cry for the family outside, and we listen to the background
walking past the doors of memory.

Glorified mother
Did you know that I'm in love
with your lonely heart.

Walking past the doors of Rosa Maria,
walking past the doors of Rosa Maria.

It all remains.
Nothing is worth more than this day.
Rosa Maria, take me away for the future may never be.

Mother, did you know that I'm in love
with your lonely heart.

Cause even though your days keep slowing down,
I've got to tell you while you're around.
Don't ever want to lose your love,
don't ever want to lose, ever want to lose you.

But I can only say...

Glorified mother
Did you know that I'm in love
with your lonely heart.

'Cause even though my days keep slowing down,
I want to tell you while you're around,
Don't ever want to lose your love,
don't ever want to lose, ever want to lose you
