I'm standing on a hilltop
A hundred miles from home
I can see the light surrounds me
I want you to show me around
I'm standing here
I really don't think you know that
I'm in heaven when you smile
I'm drifting through the city
I'm swinging from a tree
I can touch, but you can't feel me
You hear me as you sleep
I'm standing here
I really don't think you know that
I'm in heaven when you smile
I'm everywhere
I really don't think you know that
I'm in heaven when you smile
But I don't think you think like I do
No matter how hard I try
I always thought I'd have the answer
Let me tell you what I've got

I'm looking through your window

I might just have the key

Over me my free-fall baby [?]

You hear me as you speak

I'm standing here

I really don't think you know that

I'm in heaven when you smile

I'm standing here

I really don't think you know that

I'm in heaven when you smile

But I'm everywhere

I really don't think you know that

I'm in heaven when you smile

But I don't think you think like I do

No matter how hard I try

I always thought I'd have the answer

Let me tell you what I've got

Oh let it rot I made them stop

I couldn't part the jug of wine [?] in your mouth

And I can feel the hurricane when you shout

I should be safe forever in your arms

I should be safe forever in your arms

Who could part the jug of wine in your mouth?

And I can feel the hurricane when you shout

I should be safe forever in your arms

I should be safe forever in your arms
