True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing
True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, oh, is the thing

True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing
True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing

Long days spent on the edge of space
Oh, maybe someone will come along, love
All day with every familiar face
Oh, tells me you're very very wrong, love

True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing
True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing

True love, true love
True love, true love

Oh, true love

This dance could never be true enough
Oh, there's more than lead us to our destiny
Entranced, we traveled, the two of us
Oh, and I knew that only you could rest the world for me
I live deep in the heart of things
Feel such a part of things
That remind me of you, love

And I know whatever the future brings
Wherever the pointer swings
There will always be true love, you love

True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing
True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing

True love

True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing
True love is the answer to, to everything
True love is the answer, true love is the thing

True love, yes, that's the answer to, to everything
It's the answer, it's the thing
True love, it's the answer to everything
It's the answer, it's the thing

True love
