{verse 1}

To the point of fiendisness when is reached pure bliss to the sound of piss there was no kiss 90 is the number of eggs thrown each was each other's clone the splat was like that of brown showers and activities activities were jumping in the social place everyone had a frowning face this was the worst case

[chorus]

Havoc was reached fear inside, energy abide, gettin' NO ass and running out of gas the night shall never end

{verse 2}

voice is raised and the middle finger was received at first we were deceived fight was sparked, farts were lit they tried to split, but they had fat tits the chase was on eggs were thrown victory was ours bombs broke and i began to choke it smelled like ass then the new target is reached yelling is going on people feel hate
we have just begun

[chorus]

{verse 3}

people were getting gas as we passed there was no choice but to raise the voice middle fingers, angry mothers, pissed brothers the night was a full success, we got no breast, our fight was put to the test
