I never was the one to carry on
But everything is different since you came along I'm in the middle of something special
I never felt this way before
And now I need a little time to understand a little more

I can't explain the way you made me feel or the moment that my heart began to reel
You took me in a new direction
You're showing me a different way
And now there's only one thing baby
That there's left for me to say

Why don't you
Take me, my baby
Hold me for all time
and never
Leave me, believe me
Let me be your one and only
love me like you do
and let me give my lovin'
All to You

Now I know it's love and that's a fact
There's no return there is no going back
It might be the way you make me crazy
You always take my breath away
And now there's only one thing baby
That there's left for me to say
Why don' you
Take me, my baby
Hold me for all time
And never
Leave me, believe me
I will always be by your side
always on my mind
My baby, just take me

And everything I feel is from the bottom of my heart, yeah

I'll give you everything I have I'll give you what you never had
Why don't you
Take me, my baby
Hold me for all time
and never
Leave me, believe me
I will always be by your side
Always on my mind
You take whats wrong and make it right

I really
Need you, to feel you
Wrap me in your arms
Surround me
sweetly, completely
Love me like you do
And let me give my lovin'
All to You

Just let me give my lovin'
All to You
