Snake)

What was it you once said

That there would be things in life that couldn't be

Not for a second did I believe you

Not for a minute did I believe that

Within your need you lie alone

This empty space you call your home

Chorus

If you just let me in

I wouldn't let you break down

I'm breaking down

As if you thought the rain could wash away the day

And could heal you

Not for a second did I believe it

Not for a minute did I believe that

Within your need you lie alone

This empty space you call your home

Repeat Chorus 2x

What was it you once said

That there would be things in life that couldn't be

Not for a second did I believe you

Not for a minute did I believe that

Repeat Chorus 2x
