Slowly I heal the love that's found its way

Onto another path in times of change

Crossing a bridge unknown

Hoping our strength will hold

Should they both let go then let me lay

.....Let me lay

(Chorus)

Show me a sign

To a light that shines

One direction into another

Sheltered peace of mind

Somewhere I lost a piece of memory

Somehow I know my legs will carry me

Searching for circles end

Hoping the wounds will mend

Should this scar, then it was meant to be

Chorus 3x
