Affuso, Bolan, Hill, Snake)

Life comes and goes, quick as does the day

Greed, for those who know is just a step away

Time's a breathing bomb, going with the flow

Stand atop it all outside the status quo

No see, no speak then know where you're goin'

Drag your feet then nothing you're showin'

Take your place or fall to the lions

Lose your face and stand when you're dying

Chorus

Living in a hole is taking its toll

My iron will's in position

Seize you are not owed, stand or fall

And refuse to be denied

Pride is all in vain without the blood of need

Bones can break in shame from taking charity

Hide from all the hell and wash up with the tide

Wait and you commit psychological suicide

Break the molds of beg and submission

Wake the dead or no one will listen

Holding ground is just the beginning

It's uphill bound and in for the killing

Repeat Chorus
