...because of the strict organisation and the brutality
of his treatment he feels robbed of his dignity...

Life is hell, a mindless odyssey

Now here I dwell, stuck in misery

Forced to draw the line, life not worth a dime

Pain rules my day, living to obey

FORCED! FORCED!

The guard wants to provoke me

The priest wants to calm me down:

Rage is aggravating. The punishment is known

Already stopped living, No mind, no heart, no will

Captured in a death-trap, Forced to keep still

RESPECT I REGRET, RESPECT MY SHAMEFUL LIFE

Nothing left to lose, except my selfcontrol

Rage is satisfying, feelings are reborn

Got to end this nightmare, awake before I drop

To fight because I'm human

The last thing that I've got

RESPECT I REGRET, RESPECT MY SHAMEFUL LIFE

FORCED! FORCED!
