I didn't mean to stumble and I didn't mean to fall
But it's hard to keep your balance when your running into walls
But there's an explanation baby for the situation
I'm in

Chorus:

I am blinded by the light of your love
I don't know where I'm going or which way is up
I've never been lost and liked it so much
I am blinded by the light of your love

It's hard to see a miracle when standing up too close It's difficult to focus when it's right beneath your nose Till love makes its correction and determines the direction for me

(I'll be!) Chorus:

I didn't mean to stumble and I didn't mean to fall
But it's hard to keep your balance when your
running into walls
But there's an explanation baby for the situation
I'm in

Chorus: Chorus:
