"Gone Out Of My Mind"

Your love just came to visit
Your memory came to stay
It's a shame that being gone
Don't mean you went away

For me, it won't be over
Till the day I find
That one of us has
Gone out of my mind

I'll give up on loving you
Or else I'll go insane
It really makes no difference
As long as there's no pain

I know, it's just a matter
Of misery and time
Till one of us has
Gone out of my mind

Either I'll forget
Or I'll go crazy
One way or another
I'm gonna leave you behind

I know that I'll be tortured
By your memory
Till one of us has
Gone out of my mind
Till one of us has
Gone out of my mind
