There's a tattooed symbol underneath my sleeve

An iron glove over a hand of steel

You can't touch me

Don't touch me

All for one and one for me

Listen well an I'll set you free

You can trust me

For eternity

No promise

Is honest

In a world of change

I rule the ruins with passion and pain

I rule the ruins

Sinner or saint

Fortune or fate

Alive and well in this livin' hell

I survived it al now it's time to tell

Can you hear me

Do you hear me

Once a tattered soul on bended knees

Wich one hand to God. I felt the devils breeze

I begged help me

Wont you rescue me

One promise dishonest

And everything will change

chorus

- solo -

There's a tattooed symbol underneath my sleeve

An iron glove over a hand of steel

I rule the ruins

I rule the ruins

I rule the ruins

With passion and pain

I rule the ruins

Sinner ans saint

I rule the ruins
