Somebody must have told you before
Your pity-party just don't work anymore
Your crazy mama's just a sorry excuse
For talking shit because your lips are too loose

Your talk is cheap and your pants are on fire
I'm sick of bleeding
You're just a lovepyre
The world's your mirror
You're so out of line
Now you're gone and left behind

Sob stories coming out of your ass
You need a hand because you're chained to your past
You're so special 'cuz your man up and left
How you can stand yourself is anyone's guess

Your talk is cheap and your pants are on fire
I'm sick of bleeding
You're just a lovepyre
The world's your mirror
You're so out of line
Now you're gone and left behind

No apologies
You're sucking me dry
You got me thinking that your love is a lie
Ain't nobody gonna throw you a line
You'll be begging for mercy for the rest of your life

Your talk is cheap and your pants are on fire
