I'll remain for a while
I'll take my carriage for a ride
I'll take it home
Well in time
Time alone
Sad and loaded on my own
Still in love

But my heart isn't in it
No my heart isn't in it
Anymore
No more

Turning down all the while Still wanting one more mile
It's never enough
Too many men
Come out an angel
But trade their darling for a nail
So long

But my heart isn't in it
No my heart isn't in it
Anymore
No more

Nothing ever bothers you
Nothing's ever fine
Nothing I could say could make you pay me
Any mind
Nothing ever told you I'm the one who wants to hold you
Make you mine
I'll be fine

No my heart isn't in it
Anymore
No more
