[Intro] Afro Samurai, die die die Afro Samurai, kill kill kill Afro Samurai.. Afro Samurai.. kill kill kill Afro Samurai, die die die Afro Samurai, kill kill kill Afro Samurai, die die die Afro Samurai, KILL KILL KILL Afro Samurai, die die die Afro Samurai, kill kill kill Afro Samurai.. Afro Samurai [Rugged Monk] The swiftness of my sword is an understatement of my art of war A pleasure without conscience, feeds me, to want more Principles of karma, death before dishonor Shadows my eyesight precedes me to fight harder For the number one headband, stand alone as one man Afro Samurai can be defeated by no clan A warrior of the street through my travels of land In any shape form or fashion, kill the streets dramatic fashion Become unpredictable when I strike there's no missin you My aim is too precise, move forward and real pivotal Take sips of lemonade, take lives with my blade Revenge my father's death 'til I reach my final days [Chorus: repeat 2X] Kill kill kill, Afro Samurai Die die die, Afro Samurai Kill kill kill, Afro Samurai Afro Samurai.. Afro Samurai [Rugged Monk] I'm walkin out my nightmare drenched in cold sweats Reminiscin of the night I killed my master for the headband All the bloodshed and the murder, to revenge my father's murder The thought of that alone can I really handle the bourbon? So I choose my own path, no friends, no joy, no love Just a number two headband, AND the man above So the moves I create is my own unique vision Strike my subconscious mind, individual essence The most masterful opponent, will fall victim to my weapon The most masterful opponent, will fall victim to my weapon I'm not immortal, real aggressive, attitude is rude I got a knack for killin and I refuse to lose [Chorus] [Chorus] - whispered to fade
