Rule Ja
"Ja Rule"

Lil' Mo) (chorus)

When I cry, you cry

We cry, together

Said I cry, you cry

We cry, together

Said I cry, you cry

We cry, together

Said I cry, you cry

We cry, together

(Ja Rule)

I love my life love my wife

A bad time to prevail, it overwhelmed me

I'm livin' in hell but livin wealthy

And I know these hoes love me

Because I'm a star

I can't even cop a drink at the bar

Get me some bottles of that Rem Mar-tin

Let's get the party

Cracking right here fk V.I.P

Now when my baby loves me

Home wit tears in her eyes

And whenIget in I hurt her more by tellin her lies

She ain't surprise at me

Just surprise at we

Been together for this long

And I can be

The one to mistreat her thought it last forever

Cuz If I cry, you cry

We cry together

(chorus)

From, what I recall we was little niggas

Cut, who gettin' high,the hottest pictures

Livin',life so free

That we ain't fearin

The, ills of the world

In heat of drug dealin

You and I then made a killin

And stuck together

And this land of forbidden treasure

Love is the only evil seed that could sever

A tied this close

Not the love between us but your love for the dough

You went O.T started makin M-O-N-E-Why

All my good niggas gotta die

Wish shit could last forever

I wish (???) was pleasure

Cuz when you died

I cried, we cried together

(chorus)

Wash away your tears (my love)

you aint gotta cry no more (my love)

I'm puttin on everything out (my love)

And my pain it's my love

And I want

This world to smile for me

Don't shed a tear cuz my nigga died happily

My momma warned me life was a muthka

But ignored the warning and kept on hustlin

And every night she just looked at me wit

Tears in her eyes and then be saying like

"I don't want my baby to die"

brought so much pain into a life

Gotta make it better

Cuz when ma cried I cried

We cried together
