As your world starts the crumble becoming your battle ground
Will you stay silent, where is your faith now
Over every wound, every scar that you earned will you stand at the back and wait or will you face the flame...
To earth
We escape the.away won't face the.

Unless you fall out.if the far
Take promise swag this.all.
Fall and I am let.flag
What did I think this.
Was I expecting to wait through the eyes of the storm
Full as you are let fire direct
You never fight there.for you a big lying
You I lost at the waste of your lies

Less your world.the crumble becoming your battle
You'll be stay silent where is your fake down
Over every wood, every.you are
We are standing back away
Won't face no flame

Unless you fall out.if the far
Take promise swag this.all.
.with the gun let faithless
.we're going at the. of the way you.
The cross is your.what boy.passing.
While you.we cross with the state of your mind

Unless you fall out
Fall out
Unless you fall out

I know these aren't all right fix if you want
