This is the last feeling I can possibly spend on you

Lucy

From what I've seen lately have you something remains for us

Lucy you are

I'm not the best at this but looks you shot me let me know

I know this test you gave just test how much my feelings grow

Did you see the future in his eyes I didn't thinks so
Its time its time that we both realize you can not let me go
Wait for you as usual just outside your bedroom window

Lucy

I've watched you walk, talking, moving not on your own today

Lucy

The time will come sooner then you think I'll be home with you

Lucy you are

know

I know this test you gave just test how much my
feelings grow

wait for you as usual just outside your bedroom window

Lucy

You know I work but baby I've got a spike and go go home
Some many things to do

home

This is the last feeling I can possibly spend on you
