Song And Dance Man
Warrant

Last night I felt a wind
Of change blow through me
It spoke of a million things
Before I die I should see
Open up your eyes
Life is poetry in motion
Late for the open sky
I'll be ok as soon as I'm on my way
'Cause I am a song and dance man
I am a song and dance man
That's what I am
A song and dance man

Woman oh woman
Sometimes I hear your voice
It calls out to me
It makes my heart bleed
But I don't have any choice
I've opened up my eyes

Life is poetry in motion
Late for the open sky
I'll be ok as soon as I'm on my way
'Cause I am a song and dance man
I am a song and dance man
That's what I am
A song and dance man
Tokyo has rolling thunder
Beautiful women and warm summer rain
Honolulu has starts of fire
Words alone cannot explain
Open up your eyes
And spread your wings and fly
'Cause I am a song and dance man
I am a song and dance man
That's what I am
A song and dance man
