When the sun came up today
I asked him please to go away
Something died in me last night
I feel hollow on my inside

We talked until the words were yells
You'll never understand me I can tell
And oh, God I feel like hell
Throw another penny in the wishing well

Give me some, give me one
Who understands my meaning
Give me some, give me one
Who won't laugh when I'm bleeding
Some, give me one, give me love

Rain, rain, go away
I don't care much for the color gray
If I stay too long hopefully
I'll get washed out to the sea

And drown in my misery
I see your face looking down at me
And if I asked you for help
You'd hand me a glass of water

Give me some, give me one
Who understands my meaning
Give me some, give me one
Who won't laugh when I'm bleeding
Some, give me one, give me love, oh give me love

Sister moon and brother sun
Children stars give me one, sum of one

Rain, rain, go away
I don't care much for the color gray
When the sun came up, came up today
I asked him please to go away

Oh give me some, give me one
Who understands my meaning

Give me some, give me one
Who won't laugh when I'm bleeding

Some, give me one
Who understands my meaning
Give me some, give me one
Give me love, oh

Oh, God I feel like hell
Throw another penny in the wishing well
