Woke up this Morning a little past noon
Believe it or not it was a little too soon
A bottle of asprin water from the sink
I Don't like to brag, but I get my drinks for free
At A Quarter to Three ain't nobody bigger than me

You Play the Market, and I play guitar
You're up on Wall Street, I'm down at the bar
All the Ladies love to shake Your money tree
When they want to get shaken, Lord knows where they'll be
At A Quarter to Three ain't nobody bigger than me
At A Quarter to Three ain't nobody bigger than me

It's two A.M. I'm here again
Right where I wanna be
It's the only time in my mind
That I feel like a king

It's two A.M. I'm here again
Right where I wanna be
It's the only time in my mind
That I feel like a king
Yeah Yeah

So my baby wants to know, If I'm coming home late
She Knows the answer, She asks me anyways
I'll be back tomorrow night doin' it again
Cuz the Road Goes on Forever and the Party Never Ends

At A Quarter to Three ain't nobody bigger than me
At A Quarter to Three ain't nobody bigger than me
Nobody's bigger Baby at a Quarter to Three
