Angels dying as the wind keeps crying,
and my mind keeps fighting
wicked black desires.
Fallen angels laughing
as they see me dying,
I just can't stop my black desires.
I often wonder: will it be in my power
to stay here forever,
wicked black desires?
And my blood grows colder,
a strange kind of hunger...
I just can't kill my black desires.
Black Desires!, in my mind
Black Desires!, make me blind
Black Desires!, so alive
Please fade away!
Try to believe in me,
close your eyes and take my hand.
If you believe in me, I'll take you far away.
Away!, I'm scared!
Please go away!
