Die! Die with certain death,
and you will find a place,
where you'll unrest,
and there you'll be unblessed.
The doors of death look at your past life
and realize: life's a waste of time.
Kill! Kill with hate. Die! Die with pain.
Burn! Burn in hell and die: with certain death!
Sufferin', crying and burning excessively
trying to burn all your sins.
Now that you're paying your debts with the devil
your mouth is sucking his dick.
Screaming while burning, in hell is your warning
and he will take no replies.
The torture's forever and ever you know it
and you will never come back.
Interlude: "A Tour In Hell"
