Seven years been nailed to this cross,
but finally this evil curse is done.
Now look at me, I'm only stronger now,
so tell me: who laughs last?
Somethings are meant to really last forever,
'cos you know they say:
"rust works in mysterious ways".
Succumb, my friend, to sacrifice!
Wood to windows, bolts to doors.
I'm starving for your hollow blood.
Now you'll witness all my wrath:
I'll find my way inside!
Somethings are meant to really last forever,
'cos you know they say:
"rust works in mysterious ways".
So come, my friend, to sacrifice!!
