"Silent Waters"

Deep inside the forest, the forest in my head.
I walk all day this endless maze,
I wish I could escape.
The evil wind that flows inside me
is wanton and insane.
The unseen creatures dance around me
(they) wish I join the dead.
'Cos I wanna die so that I can listen to the silent waters!
I wanna die so that I can listen to the silent waters scream!!
Drowning in the silent waters
I can feel no pain,
Slowly sinking to the bottom,
the end of my despair.
The evil wind that crawls inside me
is wanton and insane.
The unseen creatures dance around me
(they) wish I join the dead.
Won't you like to bathe in silent waters?
