(spoken-

You seemed to know every thought I think

You seemed to feel every feeling i have

But what I didn't figured out yet is why you never knew this.)

We met at concert

a few years ago

You told me that you wanted to be my friend

But i had already fallen in love with you

chorus:

And I'm gonna love you forever and ever

You're gonna know why i feel like this

I'm gonna love you until the day that I die

I'm gonna love you forever and ever, Amen

Now we're older and mature you're way past being my friend you're over the feeling that you can't go far enough in love

You've become an artist with a cool reputation

I've be come a singer with one thing on my mind

You drive your lamborghini

And I'll ride a bus

But I'll bet we get there at the same time

(chorus)

I told you that car was a bad idea

but you wouldn't listen to me

I bet you thought about it while you waited to die because of that car you got shot between the eyes but I'm gonna love you forever and ever

(chorus)

I warned you

I told you

I loved you and I still do

(chorus)

Forever and ever Amen
