[Verse 1: Lil' Flip]
Me and Greg Street ridin'in a red Jeep we doing one-fifty nigga I bet you can't catch me you gon' respect me-my glock nine protect me I'm the one on 'How I'm Livin' with the candy Jetski elevators in my crib, Burberry in my car fire dro' by the jar, burn rubber on the tar I like to show off-I use to be the class clown but my teacher always said "Flip sit you're ass down"
"or you can leave the class now" so I left and got paid but don't get it twisted I made straight A's but school didn't pay so I started to rap
'Cause I wanna ride rims, I don't want no hub-caps so I picked up my pen but I really don't need it if I ain't in the magazine then I really want read it I can't be defeated cause I'm workin too hard
"oh my gosh, that boy rims still spinnin on his car"

[Chorus]

[Verse 2: Lil' Flip]
I get respect on the East, I get respect on the West

I'm 22 years old with 22 bad hoes cause real playas get chose if you don't know, now ya

you know I got crazy flow, and I make crazy dough
'Cause whenever I'm shoppin I make e'm close down the sto' (store)
you know we ballin for real nigga I'm tellin the truth so if I ever go broke, sorry I'm sellin the Coupe but that ain't gonna happen-cause I'm a keep on rappin and if I keep on grindin, I'm a keep goin platinum so people think I'm cappin but I'm just livin my life
'Cause I married the streets dogg and that's my wife

[Chorus]

[Verse 3: Lil' Flip]

So that's me and everything gotta feed
