When my mama met my girl
She took me aside
She's a soft-spoken woman
But she speaks her mind

She said, "De, de, de, de, de, de, de, de, de"
Let nothing come between you
De, de, de, de, de, de, de, de, de
Don't let nothing come between you

I went to see my friend to ask his advice
He just smiled and she's good around the eyes
But I'd already made up my mind
Let nothing come between us

There are frustrated people in town
Who might envy us and try to bring us down
We know they don't really mean any harm
That doesn't mean we've gotta let 'em hang around

Got the license, got the ring
Got back the blood tests and everything
Putting on my boutonniere it's her favorite flower
Then I'm walking down the altar and I'm gonna take the vow

Don't let nothing come between us
De, de, de, de, de, de, de, de, de
Don't let nothing come between us

There are frustrated people in town
Who might envy us and try to bring us down
We know they don't really mean any harm
That doesn't mean we've gotta let 'em hang around

I have advice for the young and old
If I may be so bold
When you find someone to have and hold
Don't let nothing come between you

Get together and let nothing come between us
De, de, de, de, de, de, de, de, de
Get together and let nothing come between us
