We come through the windows
We bust down the door
We cut through the ceilings
And pop up from the floor
The children are angry
And they come pouring in
We're searching for justice
From our governments
In every face in this place
I see trouble
In every face in this place
I see trouble
Let's rumble
We tear down the paintings
We tear down the sculpture
You call it destruction
Yeah, but that's what ya taught us

Busted dreamland
The country rots
This is your payback
For three trillion bucks
In every face in this place
I see trouble
In every face in this place
I see trouble
If any pigs outside
Do not hide we will rumble
In every face in this place
I see trouble
Let's rumble
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
Superpower dreamland
It's a superpower dreamland
You're livin' in a dreamland
A superpower dreamland
