Gimme some time to clear my mind.
Oh the mess up in my head.
Try to get it tight but the dashboard light.
Turned on been blinking red.
When I get dead set you better better bet.
I'll just go like a train.
But I lost my track I've got to get back.
Or I'm gonna burn coal in vain.

G-E-A-R-H-E-A-D

Gimme that chance a song and a dance.
And teach an old dog a trick.
Last time I tried well I almost died.
From shooting up dope for kicks.
But I got me a heart and a brand new start.
And I walk in the narrow way.
Gonna follow that man with holes in his hands.
Until my dying day.
