She took my money
Took my heart
She took my mind and soul
It's hard to keep it
Even when you're spinning out of control

All though my hands are shaking.
It's not just hearts she's breaking.
She's so vindictive
But that's something that I already know

Woah

But its make believe
My honesty is killing me
She jaded me
And now that I can clearly see
I swear that you
haven't seen the last of me
But its my belief
That now youll be the end of me

I drove her home and said goodnight
Then wound up in her bed
Everythings so messed up
I don't know why Im back here again

All the things shes been faking
But it's my heart that's breaking
She's so seductive
When she's on her knees and ready to go

Woah

But its make believe
My honesty is killing me
She jaded me
And now that I can clearly see
I swear that you
haven't seen the last of me
But its my belief

That now youll be the end of me

That now youll be the end of me

You'll be the end of me
Youre lonely life will bleed
It's nothing I can't see
But I cant seem to leave

You'll be the end of me
Youre lonely life will bleed
It's nothing I can't see
But I cant seem to leave

But its make believe
My honesty is killing me
She jaded me
And now that I can clearly see
I swear that you
But its my belief

That now youll be the end of me
That now youll be the end of me
That now youll be the end of me
That now youll be the end of me
That now youll be the end of me
