Now its you and I, Its you and me now
We drive through empty streets, in the summer night
As the sun comes up, we leave the city
Now when the lights just right, you're almost pretty.

The church was beautiful, so was the weather
Suppose a funeral, could be no better
As the sun comes up, we leave the city
Now when the lights just right, you're almost pretty.

Now a new day comes, (wish it)
As the sun comes up (Wish It would go down?)
I wanna stay right here (forever?)
Here where the lights just right

Now its you and I, its just you and me now
We drive through empty streets, in the summer night
As the sun comes up, we leave the city
And though you're gone for good, feels like you're with me

Now a new day comes, (wish It could stay down??)
As the sun comes up (Wish it would go down?)
I wanna stay right here (for ever and ever)
Here where the lights just right

For ever and ever..
