I remember your mouth
What it said
How it kissed me
And how it whispered, "You're not like anyone else"

And I remember your feet
I saw them dance to the new beat
And when I asked you to they walked a mile in my shoes

We were best friends
More than best friends
Let's do it all again

I remember your hands
I heard them clap for my encore
Felt them pull me back as I tried to break loose

And I remember your eyes
How they saw right through me
And how that made me feel so sick and bored with myself

We were best friends
More than best friends
Let's do it all again

We were best friends
More than best friends
Let's do it all again

Now I know that I loved her and I wish I had told her
But I was too slow
It was already over
Yeah
I was too slow it was already over

Let's do it all again
Let's do it all again
Let's do it all again
