we drowe fast
i came home
on a sunday
close to midnight
thought i needed time alone

in the car
that same day
i had heard
your ego talking
i could tell you be okey

victorious
victorious
we could be victorious
once again victorious

you keep running
tempting faith
still not old but growing older
on your way but running late

you know me
i'll be fine
life is short
i know the feeling
just call me if you
change your mind

victorious
we could be victorious
once again victorious

victorious
we could be victorious

...

victorious
we could be victorious
once again victorious

victorious
we could be victorious
once again victorious
one last time victorious then never again victorious
