"Buy me things," she says, "buy me things; buy me things."

"Buy me things," she says, "buy me things; buy me things."

"Cars and clothes and rings of gold; and stereos."

"Buy me things," she says, "buy me things; buy me things."

"Pretty things; shiny things; anything; and everything."

"Pretty things; shiny things; anything; and everything."

"Is my hair in place? Do my teeth look straight?"

"Do my eyes look big? Are my feet too big?"

"Does my nose look straight? I hope my nails don't break!"

"Is my chest too flat? Do my thighs look fat?"

"Buy me things," she says, "buy me things; buy me things."

"Buy me things," she says, "buy me things; buy me things."
