All my so-called friends said goodbye and don't come back again all my life I've been betrayed And I thought you'd be no different from the rest my life began when you said you'd stay

Nobody loves me and nobody loves you
why don't we love each other?
Nobody wants me and nobody wants you
let's become as one together

And it seems like forever
I can hardly remember when I've been loved

Moonlight shimmering on the river starlight shining in your eyes We have shared the need to be loved let's promise we'll never say goodbye

why don't we love each other?
Nobody wants me and nobody wants you
let's become as one together
