"Lonely Is The Word"

It's a long way to nowhere and I'm leaving very soon On the way we pass so close to the back side of the moon Hey join the traveler if you got nowhere to go Hang your head and take my hand
it's the only road I know Oh! Lonely is the word, yeah yeah yeah!
I've been higher than stardust
I've been seen upon the sun I used to count in millions then but now I only count in one come on, join the traveler if you got nowhere to go Hang your head and take my hand
it's the only road I know Yeah, Lonely is the word got to be the saddest song I ever heard Yeah, Lonely is the name
