You can be what you want to, don't have to listen to no one Stand up for what you believe in, you are no man's slave
Start thinking on your own, just do what you want Don't think what's right or wrong, take your chances move along Search, destroy, search, destroy
Your no man's slave, no man's slave, no man's slave Start living your own life, don't think about it twice Stand up for what you believe in, you are no man's
slave
Don't think what's right or wrong, take your chances
move along
Search, destroy, search, destroy
Your no man's slave, no man's slave, no man's slave
You can be what you want to, don't have to listen to no
one
slave
