"Darkness And Death"

Darkness and death!
what are your secret enchantments?
where lies the beauty of your oppression?
for I am entranced..

What innocence could have such splendour?
no naked beauty nor a warm smile
but the power to leave stars and worlds in lifeless silence

Sublime is the hand of no pity that wields a merciless death to judge not by deeds
but by approval of a god!

Victorious heart of deceit shaped in red beauty yet carved in black stone killing not to win but to ensure a loss mendaciously pondering through death...

Darkness and death!
your blessed art lives through me
through entranced submission
by the love of god
