I walk real slow
when I'm all alone I rock to the beat in my headphones I'm beginning to think that I'm gonna miss you

The streetlights shine onto my new bed Like the stars glowing down on the rivers edge Wasn't that the place,
the place I first kissed you

Ooooh,Ooooh
And it feels so good
to be on your own Ooooh,Ooooh
Tonight this town
doesn't feel like home
But it still feels good,
It still feels good
It feels so good tonight

It's been three weeks since I moved away Still getting used to my new place I'm beginning to think
that I'm gonna miss you

The boxes fill my apartment hall

I'm thinking of you but trying not to call I'm convincing myself that I'll be better off without you

Ooooh,Ooooh
And it feels so good
to be on your own
Ooooh,Ooooh

Tonight this town
doesn't feel like home
But it still feels good,
It still feels good
It feels so good tonight

Second thoughts fill my head
When I feel the cold side of the bed I lie here and I wonder what to do Pretending it's not lonely without you

Ooooh,Ooooh
And it feels so good
to be on your own
Ooooh,Ooooh
Tonight this town
But it still feels good,
It still feels good
