Once dreamed a dream thought no one could ever see of my own seemed alone then I met 3 who had the same dream as me all so real we now know now all we want is to give hope like a cure for a disease we all have void in need of fill so listen up, so what's this life does it all seem burdensome? Would you like to cut those chains? Please listen up we are never giving up all so real now we know now all we want is to give hope like a cure for a disease we all have void in need of fill so listen up.
