Seventeen, its not my thing and its obscene to all out be compromising tell me please why cant we talk because you denunciate a lot intelligence is lacking with criticizing how you feel could never change the truth please know im just here to help don't get angry I know its hard we all fall short and sometimes far im here to help you out. tell me please why cant we talk
with criticizing not here to prove who is right and wrong or put you down confrontation, encouragement, renewing, building up.
