Ten thousand eyes and lies on my back, all those innuendoes I know them by heart I've seen some queer things in my time, queer things that make me twitch All this conspiracy grows with years, I used to make believe that I was blind But now my cup, my cup is over filled Watch out my war of nerves starts, let's play this game Let's play this game, let's try my game!
The rules are mine, watch-out It's on my mind all times, ten thousand eyes telling thousand lies,
It's on my mind all times
I steer clear off the light, light of the day, fears, anguishes are now a part of me Wondering if this will end when I die, game's over is it the end ?
Ten thousand eyes and lies always behind my back
thousand lies
Suspicious floating now, in my mind, suspicious floating now, in my mind
