Here I go again, got a broken heart

This time I'll get stronger

No grieving 'til the break of dawn

Ain't falling easily, move over

Dreams are dreams,

Will they at last come true

Skies are clear, leaving me bright and blue

I will raise my glass to my heart and say,

"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday"

Here's not to dreams that dont come true

Here's not to what was me and you

Here's not to all the days gone by

And to the truth that lived a lie.

Dreams are dreams,

Will they at last come true

Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue

I will raise my glass to my heart and say,

"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday"

(repeat twice)

Dreams are dreams,

Will they at last come true,

Skies will clear,
Leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say,
"Here's to tomorrow.....
My words are a whisper, in silence I shall....
No Hallmark card can spell it out.
Deep down inside, you know i care
There's nothing to say 'bout the love we shared
Dreams are dreams,
Will they at last come true
Skies will clear leaving me bright and blue
I will raise my glass to my heart and say,
"Here's to tomorrow, not yesterday"
(Repeat 3 times
