No rain shall fall on my parade
My love let the sun rise again
You gotta work it out to make it right
Five or ten years down the line you'll see
If you worked it out, made it right
You'd realise it's meant to be

Back where I belong
Here we go again
Where I come from if you get knocked down
Then you get back up again

Back where I belong
I heard you lost a friend
Where I come from if you get knocked down
Then you get back up again

So lose your faith in misery
Disapprove, mistakes are meant to be
You gotta work it out and make it right
You're in and out the other side
You gotta work it out and make it right
Don't let it slip, don't let it slide

Back where I belong
I heard you lost a friend
Where I come from if you get knocked down
Then you get back up again

Back where I belong
Here we go again
Where I come from if you get knocked down
Then you get back up

Back where I belong
Here we go again

Back where I belong
I heard you lost a friend

Back where I belong
Here we go again
Back where I belong
I heard you lost a friend
Back where I belong
